WOMAN DENIES HER DOGS ARE FEROCIOUS

Leaves By Side Door After Court Hearing

A WOMAN owning two Alsatian dogs that had been killing pet cats in the Norwood area left the Lambeth Court on Monday by a side door, escorted by a policeman at a crowd of Norwood women who had been in court. The dog owner, Mrs. May Hosick, Ardru-road, West Norwood, had just been fined a total of £2, with £2 2s. costs for allowing two dogs, described as 'ferocious', to be at large without muzzle, and fined 15s. for having only one dog licence for the two.

Thought While Thinking The cinema is a only half-full the pubs are empty, and there's nobody in the houses except you and me. Where is everyone?

Which Reminds Me

Publicans prophesy that it will be long before the barrels will be just a mellow memory. Only a few years ago it was seven barrels and seven crates of bottled beer. Now it is two barrels and seven crates.

Fancy Him Noticing!

Comes a letter from one of my million fans—she lives at Warmington, South Norwood, where she has a change of hair-style in my Green Goddess last week.

The Trouble Is...

Young people, when they marry nowadays, want to start where they finish. I wonder...

Almost all local organisations were represented, and there was a stream of letters expressing interest from societies who, because of clashing dates, were unable to send a representative.

Among those who sent representatives were the Radio Society, Norwood Welfare Fund, the Crystal Palace Photographic Society, Crofton Playing Fields Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, Upper Norwood Inner Wheel, Upper Norwood Methodist Church, Upper Norwood and Penge Branch of the St. John Ambulance Brigade, Crofton Area Football Association, Crofton Adult School Athletic Club, Kingswood School, the Youth of Upper Norwood British Legion, Women's Section of the British Legion, Crofton Boy Scout Troop, Upper Norwood Community Centre, Rotary Club of Upper Norwood, Upper Norwood Conservative Association, Crofton Education Officer, represented by Mr. H. Christie, Harold Lawn Tennis Club, Christ Church, St. Alban's Church.

COUNCIL RECEPTIVE TO SUGGESTIONS

She pointed out that Crofton had received a large number of suggestions, and the earlier these were received, the better for everyone. Upper Norwood Council was very sympathetic, but they would do all they could regarding the street decoration of the Triangle. This offer came through Mr. Will Smith, chairman of the Council.

Mr. Will Smith, who opened the meeting and introduced the chairman, Coun. Mrs. C. G. Kettle, retorted that the members would do all they could regarding the street decoration of the Triangle. This offer came through Mr. Will Smith, chairman of the Council.

A Tramp Passes By

A tramp passed through Balham and Footing last week. It had been bought by Mr. Peter Van der Weide, Dutch actor, accountant and tramp enthusiast. The result of this first meeting, which was held on Friday, October 10th, was to return two ideas from that time on Friday, October 10th.

THE KING GEORGE VI NATIONAL MEMORIAL: LOCAL LIST OPENED

I am opening a local appeal for the National Memorial and donations, large or small, are invited to me at the Town Hall. I hope that all places of worship and places of entertainment, every business house, workshop, and organisation in the borough will contribute to the fund. The new homes were specially designed to avoid the segregation of the tenements.

OLD COUPLES HANDED KEYS OF NEW HOMES

SIXTEEN elderly couples started new lives on Saturday, when they were handed the keys to their new homes. A block of flats, built partly from a grant from the Local Authorities Housing Council, was opened for the first time in the area. The ceremony was carried out in pleasant sunshine, was attended by hundreds of residents from the nearby Council houses.

Norwood Link With America

The question arises, could the story have been told in the columns of the 'Chicago Tribune', one of whom writes: 'The story was told in the columns of the 'Chicago Tribune'...

In Defence Of The Barrow-Boy

Police-Sgt. Morely said house-breaking implements, 50 ignition keys, and other items were found in the car when searched. The cash was found on the front seat, and the police at the scene were three men who were committed for trial at the London Sessions.

Three Notices Had Been Given
